MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director for Administration
FROM: Charles A. Briggs
Inspector General
SUBJECT: Consultants' Report on Agency's Psychological Activities

Harry:

Responding to your request for written comments:

1. The report takes a safe and reasonable stand against consolidation. I have no quarrel with that. The issue was addressed, involved parties had their say. So be it.

2. The other recommendations reinforce the several inspection reports' conclusions that there is, in all likelihood, some Agency gain from increased communion with one another, including, Lord save us, rotation.

3. The report addresses primarily what the psychological units do; it strongly encourages evaluation of how well. So do I.
